NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Crush Wine Experiences (formerly New York Wine Events) is pleased to return to Long Island Wine Country on Saturday, June 17 with its 7th annual North Fork Crush Wine & Artisanal Food Festival. The event will take place at Peconic Bay Vineyards in Cutchogue, under a spacious tent, protected from the elements. The 2023 East End summer tasting offers a choice of two general admission sessions: Afternoon: 12-3pm or Evening: 4-7pm, plus a VIP Ticket option that includes admission to an exclusive VIP area featuring 12 reserve and estate wines along with appetizers, perfect for pairing.

The 7th Annual North Fork Crush features a diverse array of wines, craft beverages, and artisanal fare samplings for guests to enjoy in a beautiful vineyard setting; June 17 at Peconic Bay Vineyards. Info/tickets: CrushWineXP.com

Guests will enjoy numerous tasting tables with over 100 quality white wines, reds, rosés, and sparkling selections from Long Island, New York, California, France, Italy, and South America, plus spirits from New York State farm distilleries. Samplings from artisanal food makers from Long Island and beyond will feature sauces, snacks, cheese, baked goods, salsas, dips, and other craft foods.

In addition to tasting an array of wines, foods, and craft beverages, guests can chat with the makers, learning about all the offerings directly from the source, enjoy music in the festive vineyard atmosphere, and keep their complimentary Crush WineXP custom tasting glass and tote bag as souvenirs. Participating North Fork/East End and New York State farm wineries and distilleries will have selections on hand for guests to purchase by the bottle or case. Artisanal food makers will have full-sized products available for sale so guests can continue enjoying their offerings at home.

“Crush Wine Experiences is excited to present our annual NoFo tasting at beautiful Peconic Bay Vineyard,” notes Sam Kimball, WSET Certified Sommelier and founder of Crush Wine Experiences. “It’s the perfect setting to kick off the summer with a specially curated seasonal selection of wines from the East End, New York State, California, and old world and emerging regions around the globe. Exquisitely crafted spirits from New York makers and a diverse array of artisan foods round out the day that celebrates Long Island Wine Country.”

Participating Long Island wineries and New York State producers include

Jamesport Vineyards, Ferreira Carpenter Estates (Orange County, NY), Maiden + Liberty, Mattebella Vineyards, North Cliff Vineyards, Pail Shop Vineyards (Otsego County, NY) Palmer Vineyards, Paumanok Vineyards, Peconic Bay Vineyards, Pellegrini Vineyards, Pindar Vineyards,
