

CCHR's History of Psychiatry Museum Rated Number 1 in Clearwater

Consisting of 14 displays revealing the facts about psychiatric abuses, visitors learn about mental health human rights during the two-hour self-guided tour.

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 25, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Listed as the number one museum in the area, the Citizens Commission on Human Rights \(CCHR\) "Psychiatry: An Industry of Death" museum has been toured by over 9,000 people. Taking the top spot in the categories of "Rated", "Most Reviewed" and "Hidden Gem", the exhibit was opened by the Florida chapter of CCHR during the summer of 2015 and it is located in Clearwater. “

Dropped into the museum while on vacation and was not disappointed! Very informative and presented difficult information in a professional and respectful manner. Definitely recommend the museum.”

Ron Hubbard, founder of Scientology, first brought psychiatric imprisonment to wide public notice:

“Thousands and thousands are seized without process of law, every week, over the ‘free world’ tortured, castrated, killed. All in the name of ‘mental health,’” he wrote in March 1969.
