RMR & Associates brings the government marketplace the depth and breadth of experience

We are thrilled to announce our renewed focus on State and Local government projects”

RMR's President, Robyn Sachs

needed to raise visibility, attention, awareness, and engagement for their campaigns. RMR specializes in driving positive perceptions of our clients through a proven process for communications and branding and will use this proficiency to deliver measurable results and ROI on State and Local contracts.

RMR looks forward to doing its part to promote a vibrant

State and Local economy through work on government contracts. There is a considerable market for RMR's integrated marketing services and the certifications remove artificial barriers to competition. Now RMR's small, woman-owned company has access to more contracting opportunities.

"We are thrilled to announce our renewed focus on State and Local government projects," said RMR's President, Robyn Sachs. "At RMR, results are at the center of everything we do, and we will capitalize on the many years of successful partnerships with government entities where we utilized the creativity and innovative spirit of our team and culture to consistently anticipate, meet, and exceed our clients' expectations on new projects – we will bring government clients great value, results, and return-on-investment."
