Her immediate response was crying out for divine intervention when she saw the shark approach. Unfortunately, that day, she had been swept far out in the Atlantic by a rip tide, and there was no one to help and no way to make it safely to shore. Anne Archer Butcher

Anne Archer has had two near-death experiences, many mystical adventures, and a life full of unique, spiritually transformative experiences. She and her husband, Alden Butcher, have also had a powerful spiritual experience together, which is the subject of their upcoming book, described in detail at their website, www.FiveBlueRings.com. She explains, "The dolphin rescue is the story that people want to hear most often—because everyone loves dolphins. And it was not just a 'dolphins-showed-up-and-chased-the-shark-away' type of occurrence. To be carried on the backs of dolphins and the ceremony they performed at the end—changed my life completely. But the biggest spiritually transformative events of my life followed the dolphin rescue, and the story of Five Blue Rings eclipses them all (www.FiveBlueRings.com).

Studying Comparative World Religions as a part of an advanced degree program helped Anne understand the remarkable things she was experiencing in her own life. She has a Master's Degree in English and Education and spent over ten years as a high school teacher. Along with her husband, Alden Butcher, she is the co-owner of Dolphin Media Services.
