

Flint Monarchs Announce 2023 Game Schedule

Includes FIBA United Cup Invitational in the Dominican Republic

FLINT, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES, May 29, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Flint Monarchs women's professional basketball will return for its 12th season, with a schedule that includes playing all home games at Mott Community College and competing internationally in the Dominican Republic.

The Monarchs, coming off a historic season from last year are the reigning national champions of the Global Women's Basketball Association (GWBA), and reigning international champions of the FIBA United Cup in the Dominican Republic.

In a rematch of last season's championship game, the Monarchs will open the season on the road Saturday June 3 against the Wisconsin Glo in Oshkosh, WI.

The Monarchs' return home for a double header on Saturday June 10 and June 11 against the newest GWBA team, the Kansas City Crossover at Mott Community College.

The Monarchs also will return to the Dominican Republic to compete and defend their FIBA United Cup championship on July 11 through July 14.

"We have been contacted by other professional basketball entities in, Central America, Asia and Europe to join them or compete on an international platform," said Dray Wynn, the Monarchs head coach and general manager. "We have proven that we can play at an international level, a top priority is to ensure our next move takes us to one or all of those places," said Wynn.
