possibilities, the AC60 can connect with B80 expansion battery packs for a max capacity of 2,015Wh. AC60 has been launched recently, and BLUETTI is still offering an early-bird price which can be overlaid with this special offer.

Capability and Portability Combined: AC200P and AC200MAX

For those seeking both mobility and larger capacity for road trips, and longer outings, BLUETTI presents the AC200P and AC200MAX. With power capacities of 2,000Wh and 2,048Wh respectively, they are also flexible enough to move around with two handles. Equipped with multiple outlets, they can meet nearly all power demands from common devices during longer trips and outings. With a maximum solar charging power of 700W to 900W, they can reach a full charge in 3~3.5 hours. Supporting either B230 or B300 external batteries, both can reach a maximum of over 8000kWh capacity and serve as home backup power sources during power outages and emergencies.
