

EPS Global Wins Best Supplier Award from Jabil

Recognized for Consistently Delivering Differentiated Services

WUZI, JIANGSU, CHINA, May 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EPS Global, a world-leading IC Programming and Secure Provisioning services organisation, has been honored with Jabil's Best Supplier Award, during a presentation that took place in Wuxi.

EPS Global provides IC programming services to Jabil, with a team permanently located in-house at Jabil's almost 700,000 sq. ft. manufacturing facility in Wuxi. From this location, Jabil provides world-class engineering and manufacturing services to customers both in China and overseas, mainly focused on the production of mobile phone-related parts.

Jabil is a hugely important customer to us around the world from Mexico to Hungary and China, this award is testament to the success of our long-standing partnership.”

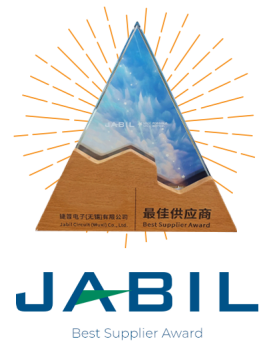

Colin Lynch, CEO, EPS Global

Reliable partners are integral to ensuring that Jabil's supply chain remains agile and efficient, and they acknowledged exemplary performance by its strategic supplier EPS Global with whom they have been working for two decades in Wuxi. EPS Global also provides IC programming, component configuration and packaging services to Jabil in various other locations around the world including Hungary and Mexico.

“We are proud to work alongside EPS Global and would like to congratulate them on receiving the 'Best Supplier' award which recognizes EPS Global as a key partner in consistently delivering quality services,” said Rick Ji, Purchasing Leader, Jabil.

“We are honored to receive the Best Supplier accolade and would like to thank Jabil wholeheartedly for their recognition of our outstanding performance and trust in our hardworking team,” said Colin Lynch, CEO, EPS Global. “Jabil is a hugely important customer to us
