Retirement is a do-over opportunity on life - if you take it! Our goal is to provide the easy to use tools to make smart, informed decisions every step along the way.”

John Brady, Founder of Topretirements.com

Topretirements’ simple interface makes it easy to find the right place to retire. Using the Best Places to Retire tool, simply select a state to explore, then speed right to the unbiased reviews of a particular town - why it’s great place to retire, where to live, costs, climate and location, culture, medical care, transportation, crime, etc. Beyond that, there are snapshot reviews of all the active adult and 55+ communities in each area - almost 5,000 in all. Advertisers also have the opportunity to purchase Showcase Listings to highlight their 55+ communities.

Helpful lists and off the beaten path suggestions

But Topretirements is a lot more than a directory to help people find out where to retire. There are hundreds of practical Blog articles to make the retirement search fun and interesting - lists of the most walkable communities, best lake towns for retirement, what the new urban retirement movement is like for retirement, most innovative active communities, etc. Features like Best (and Worst) States to Retire are guaranteed to get the thinking process going.

Practical help on every aspect of retirement

From the Dueling Retirement States series (FL vs. AZ, NC vs. SC, etc.), downsizing tips, when to take Social Security, to the Online Retirement 101 multi-part class, Topretirements has the practical advice and information to help anyone find the fabulous retirement they deserve.
