community. The partnership brings together two leading organizations in the mainframe industry to provide comprehensive resources and support for those interested in learning, working, and growing their mainframe expertise.

Under the new partnership, Planet Mainframe and iTech-Ed Ltd.'s three (3) user groups – the Virtual CICS user group, the Virtual Db2 user group, and the Virtual IMS user group - will work together to promote and broaden awareness of educational resources and tools for CICS, Db2, and IMS users. The two organizations will also share and promote each other's respective resources and expertise, providing members access to a wider range of learning opportunities and support.

iTech-Ed Ltd.'s CICS, Db2, and IMS user groups are vibrant communities of mainframe professionals dedicated to sharing knowledge and best practices for each specific mainframe technology. The groups host regular webinars, training sessions, and networking events that enable members to stay up-to-date with the latest developments in the industry and explore other related mainframe technologies.

Planet Mainframe is the leading online resource for mainframe professionals, offering a wide range of articles, tutorials, and other resources to help users stay current on the latest trends and technologies in the industry. The platform also provides a forum for networking and collaboration among mainframe professionals worldwide. "We are very excited to partner with iTech-Ed Ltd. to support mainframe education and community," said Hanifa Anne Sekandi, Managing Editor of Planet Mainframe. "Our shared goals of education and community provide an opportunity where the result will be greater than the sum of its parts. Together we will provide users with more opportunities to collaborate and share the tools and resources needed to stay abreast of the latest developments in this dynamic field."

"This collaboration with Planet Mainframe is a significant step in our efforts to support the CICS, Db2, and IMS communities and mainframe education in general," said Trevor Eddolls, CEO of iTech-Ed Ltd. and an IBM Champion for 2023. "We look forward to working together to provide even more valuable resources and opportunities for our members."
