The Ladybug Music Festival was launched in 2012 and it has become an annual celebration of women in the music industry. It features an all-female lineup of artists who are local to Wilmington and Philadelphia and nationally to all women in the music scene. Ladybug became so successful that it expanded to Milford, DE, in 2018. Ladybug grew to be one of the most popular events in Wilmington, DE, with attendance doubling every single year, and it has become the largest celebration of women in the United States.

Ladybug Music Festival continues to become even more inspired to empower women in the music industry.
