Hawaii Fluid Art

For anyone looking for a fun way to de-stress and reconnect with their inner child, Hawaii Fluid Art is the place to create.

"From the moment you walk into one of our studios, you will feel loved, supported, important, empowered, and capable," says Ratcliff.

Open seven days a week, Hawaii Fluid Art, Tinley Park offers art classes, retail shopping, an art gallery, and more. The art classes are fun, fast, and easy. Liquid art is a great activity for all ages and skill levels, and the studio offers everything from canvas painting to glass painting to a splatter room. Individual and group classes are available for birthday parties, corporate events, Girls' Nights Out, date nights, fundraisers, family fun nights, and team-building events.

Classes and private events can now be booked online at www.hawaiiifluidart.com. Walk-ins are always welcome.
