FIST has proven to be an invaluable tool for the APSF, providing vital field information support...I wholeheartedly recommend utilizing FIST as a powerful resource for the APSF's success.

*Col. Dr. Wandee Tosuwan,
Secretary Genral for APSF*

The FIST - FusionPortal/Gather system will be used for data acquisition and analysis in support of the APSF Directors. This support will allow them to efficiently oversee sports, classification, anti-doping, protocol, media, international services etc. through intuitive data collection. and reliable communication.

The system will centralize data collection and minimize data entry errors, enabling the APSF to understand the reports and increase the impact of their work. FIST supports a range of data collection methods, including online surveys and in-depth interviews, data entry and records, and can be customized to suit the APSF's needs.

All data is automatically collated, making it easy for the APSF Team to share data across projects, and provides a communication platform that enables seamless sharing of data visualizations, dashboards and results.

Col. Dr. Wandee Tosuwan, Secretary Genral for APSF, assessment of the technology "FIST has proven to be an invaluable tool for the APSF, providing vital field information support. Its comprehensive features and user-friendly interface have greatly enhanced the efficiency and effectiveness of our operations. I wholeheartedly recommend utilizing FIST as a powerful resource for the APSF's success."

Ruth Little, Kestrel Project Manager for FIST APSF states "Using FIST to support the APSF has been a game-changer for our team. The streamlined workflow, enables APSF to access crucial field information quickly and easily. FIST empowers its users to make informed decisions, ensuring seamless coordination and effective project management. I highly endorse incorporating FIST into APSF daily operations for optimal results."

Kestrel wishes the best of luck to the para games athletes in Cambodia 2023.
