

CargoX wins Most Inspiring Solutions in Digitalisation Award

CargoX, the blockchain document transfer provider and eBL pioneer, awarded Most Inspiring Solutions in Digitalization Award at Transport & Logistics Middle East

DUBAI, UAE, June 1, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- CargoX has been awarded the Most Inspiring Solutions in Digitalization Award at the 2023 Transport & Logistics Middle East awards ceremony, which took place in Dubai on 25 May. Other winners at the event included DSV, DHL, MSC, CMA CGM, DB Schenker, Emirates SkyCargo, Abu Dhabi Airports, CEVA Logistics and Dubai Police.

The CargoX Platform for Blockchain Document Transfer (BDT) offers an automated and secure system for transferring electronic trade documents between transport & logistics partners and governmental entities in global supply chains. Fast and flexible, CargoX facilitates the flow of crucial data and documents of title through a public, neutral blockchain. The platform is built with global standards and focused on interoperability. It can easily integrate with business and single window systems through API, removing the need for re-entering data and reducing chance of errors, while bringing down time and cost, as well as risk involved in sensitive document transfer.

This award fuels our passion to continue to redefine the future of transport and logistics, connecting businesses and people.”

Vjeran Ortynski, VP Business Development, CargoX

Stefan Kukman, CargoX CEO: “The simplification of document transfers that the CargoX Platform offers means that logistics supply chains can reliably and securely send trade documents in an instant, with the highest level of trust and reliability. They can track the progress of customs filings and title transfer, while the cost of operations comes down drastically.”

The system is transparent and user-friendly and allows stakeholders to manage their document distribution without any loss of documents in transit.

"I am humbled and honoured to accept the Most Inspiring Solutions in Digitalization Award on behalf of our dedicated team. This award fuels our passion to continue to redefine the future of transport and logistics, connecting businesses and people. Thank you to the judges, our partners, and most importantly, our incredible team for making this achievement possible," said Vjeran Ortynski, VP Business Development, CargoX, who accepted the award on stage.
