

Atlas Distribution Company to Release Covid Lockdown Documentary Film “The Essential Church”

Three pastors face the risk of imprisonment, and their churches splitting apart when governments use COVID-19 emergency to restrict worshiping.

HOLLYWOOD, CA, USA, June 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Atlas Distribution Company, a leading independent film distributor, announced that it will release the documentary film “The Essential Church” theatrically on July 28, 2023. The film was produced by Grace Productions, a ministry of Grace Community Church of the Valley, and directed by Shannon Halliday.

The Essential Church Key Art

“The Essential Church” is a documentary about the struggle between the Church and government throughout history. The film follows three pastors who face the risk of imprisonment, unlimited fines, and their own churches splitting apart when governments use COVID-19 emergency act edicts to restrict the gathering and worship of the Church. The pastors take a courageous stand and reopen their churches in the face of a world that has chosen to comply.

Government overreach ran rampant during COVID. This film is an important story that needs to be told.”
