About Form 2290

Form 2290, also known as the Heavy Highway Vehicle Use Tax Return, is a crucial tax form required by the IRS for vehicles with a gross weight of 55,000 pounds or more. This form is primarily used to report and pay the Heavy Vehicle Use Tax (HVUT), which is an annual federal tax imposed on heavy vehicles that operate on public highways.

Truckers and owners of heavy vehicles must file Form 2290 and pay the HVUT if their vehicle is used during the tax period and has a taxable gross weight of 55,000 pounds or more.
