

Historical Elegance Meets Modern Luxury: Prestigious Los Cerritos Property Now on the Market

LONG BEACH, CA, USA, June 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A spectacular single-family residence located at 3841 Pacific Ave in the prestigious Virginia Country Club neighborhood of Los Cerritos, Long Beach, has just been listed for sale. Marcos Ramirez, the renowned real estate agent, presents this 1949 built, renovated estate that seamlessly blends historical charm with modern luxury, making it one of the most sought-after properties in the area.

The property boasts a sprawling one-level main house with four bedrooms, four bathrooms, and an entirely separate one-bedroom guest house. The residence also includes a three-car garage, a circular driveway, and extended gated remote entry RV parking, offering ample space for homeowners and their guests.

Natural light pours into the expansive open living area, adorned with new floor-to-ceiling windows and glass sliding doors. These doors reveal the immaculately maintained backyard, equipped with a built-in barbecue and a vast heated pool and spa, complete with a renovated Baja shelf and soothing waterfalls.

The interior features an impressive formal living room with a grand fireplace and a modern, elegantly designed kitchen equipped with new stainless-steel appliances and a sizable island. The residence also includes two separate owner's suites, each featuring full bathrooms with double rainfall showerheads and double sink vanities.

Located within the top-rated Long Beach Unified School District, this property offers the best of urban living with community features such as sidewalks and street lighting.

The estate's listing marks an exciting opportunity for potential buyers to own a piece of Long Beach history, seamlessly blended with modern luxury and conveniences. For more information, please contact Marcos Ramirez at Marcosxmr@gmail.com.
