This article, isn't necessarily a Top 10 but rather a list of 10 life insurance companies and the different factors that set them each apart. For example, Nationwide is home to some of the best life insurance companies in Dallas for their ability to appropriately bundle insurance for clients. Mutual of Omaha is their pick for accelerated death benefits, while State Farm gets the nod for customer satisfaction. Transamerica, Haven Life, Pacific Life, and Northwestern Mutual all made the list for fast claims, digital features, universal life coverage, and personalized experience. Rounding out the list were New York Life (permanent life coverage) and Bestow (applying online).

Rick Thornton, a top health and life insurance agents in Dallas, says these and so many more features are a big reason why millions of Americans shop rates and benefits to find the best overall experience. And more and more of them are choosing term life insurance, which pay a lump sum to beneficiaries upon the policyholder's death. That money can then be used by the beneficiaries to cover bills and any end-of-life expenses.
