Bringing together diverse life experiences - from dancing with Kylie Minogue to creating striking visual experiences in entertainment and advertising - Daniel and Garet extend their home to listeners across the globe. This open-minded pair delivers a range of content, covering love, relationships, dating, sex, gay-marriage, family building, and current affairs within the LGBTQIA+ community. "Modern Gays" strikes a balance between lighthearted banter and impactful discussion, ensuring each episode is both entertaining and enlightening.

The Modern Gays podcast is a collection of conversations on how to build the vibrant life you want by owning your authentic self”

Daniel and Garet Camilleri

In the ever-evolving landscape of the LGBTQIA+ community, the "Modern Gays" podcast fills a gap by providing an authentic and celebratory gay point-of-view. The married co-hosts delve into everyday, relatable topics with humor and heart, contributing to the much-needed visibility of gay podcasts.

Beyond its regular programming, "Modern Gays" promises a star-studded roster of upcoming guests from various spheres, including Drag Race queens, motivational speakers, gay icons, surrogacy experts, and travel influencers. At the heart of each episode are stories of self-definition, confidence, and self-love.

"We're not defined by one thing, as we celebrate everyone who is on their quest to live the most authentic life possible," said Daniel and Gareth Camilleri.

The duo also plans to release weekly short bonus episodes and an extended "raw and uncut" version for paid-subscribers in the near future.
