

Vegan Confectionery Market Valuation to Hit USD 4.03 Billion at a CAGR of 11.7% by 2032 | Reports and Data

Increasing health consciousness among people and choosing healthier alternatives to animal-based food products is the key factor driving market revenue growth.

NEW YORK, U.S, UNITED STATE, June 2, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In 2022, the Global Vegan Confectionery Market reached USD 1.34 Billion, and it is projected to experience a rapid revenue growth at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.7% during the forecast period. The primary driving force behind this growth is the increasing awareness of health-conscious individuals who are opting for healthier alternatives to animal-based food products. Vegan confectionery encompasses a wide range of treats such as sweets, Vegan candies are frequently regarded as a healthier alternative to regular candies. Products made with vegan confectionery frequently lack common allergies including dairy, eggs, and nuts.”

Reports and Data

chocolates, bakery items, candies, desserts, and pastries that are created using vegan ingredients. The demand for vegan confectionery is on the rise due to a growing understanding of veganism and the environmental and health benefits associated with a plant-based diet. Moreover, consumers are actively seeking confectionery products that are low in calories, sugar-free, and made with natural ingredients, reflecting their heightened consciousness towards personal health.

Vegan candies are often considered a more wholesome substitute for conventional candies. These products made with vegan confectionery ingredients are commonly free from allergens such as dairy, eggs, and nuts. The demand for allergen-free products is increasing in tandem with the prevalence of food allergies and intolerances.
