

Worldipi.com Announces Groundbreaking Medical Technologies and Expands Business Operations for 2023

Intellectual Properties International Holdings, also known as Worldipi.com, shares its latest ventures in medical innovation and consumer products.

PALM BEACH, FLORIDA, USA, June 4, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Intellectual Properties International Holdings (Worldipi.com) is thrilled to announce significant advances in its medical technology and overall business operations for 2023. In a recent statement, Lisa Pamintuan, President of Worldipi.com, declared the company has made groundbreaking progress in its medical UVC technologies for combating airborne viruses.

Celebrating its 20th anniversary of obtaining the first patent for using LEDs to kill pathogens, Worldipi.com is proud to reveal that the National Academy of Sciences Virology Laboratories in Kiev has demonstrated 100% effectiveness in killing live viruses using the company's new mask system. Additional peer-reviewed studies confirm the 100% effectiveness of LED systems in viral destruction.

The company now possesses a new proprietary paradigm for destroying airborne viral particles and is focusing on mass production and widespread implementation of these innovations.

Worldipi.com's R&D team continues to diversify their projects, including the development of biopsy material mixtures with T cells and DNA-altering viruses to target customized pathogens, utilizing 3D printing technologies post-surgery, and creating innovative new algorithms for telemedicine to replicate X-rays without the need for radiation or expensive equipment. Further details can be found in their medical technology video update.

In addition to cutting-edge medical advancements, Worldipi.com's consumer products division has successfully introduced Nicolas of Palm Beach, a luxurious product line featured at nicolasofpalmbeach.com. The company is also spinning off Real Boxer Brand, Dolphin & Bee
