

The Hyundai Prophecy Is Shaking Up the EV Industry

Hyundai's Prophecy Concept May Be Revealing What the Future of EVs Is All About.

ROCKWALL, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, June 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Hyundai Prophecy is an all-electric concept car that was unveiled at the 2020 Geneva International Motor Show. The Prophecy is a sleek and stylish sedan that features suicide doors and a long wheelbase. The Hyundai EV concept car is powered by two electric motors that generate a combined output of 402 horsepower. The Prophecy has a range of 500 kilometers and can reach a top speed of 200 kilometers per hour.

The exterior design of the Prophecy is based on the "Sensuous Sportiness" design philosophy that was first introduced on the Hyundai Ioniq 5. The Prophecy features a long hood, a short rear deck, and a wide stance. The concept car is painted in a "Liquid Metal" color that changes shades depending on the angle of view. The Hyundai Prophecy is a stunning concept car that showcases the future of Hyundai's design and engineering.

The application of Hyundai's Sensuous Sportiness design philosophy is evident in the voluptuous side section, which is like that of a perfectly weathered stone. It is cut by a clean and simple One Curve streamline which extends from front to rear with minimalist restraint. This underlines the timelessness of its design. The dynamic and elegant boat-tail line created by the rear quarter panels appear to propel the form forward even when it is standing still.

"The visionary concept clearly expresses Hyundai's latest design philosophy, Sensuous Sportiness, expanding on the era-defining example set by last year's "45" concept EV that stripped away complexity in favor of clean lines and minimalistic structures." - Hyundai.com
