

Intellect RFG Unleashes Fatal Attraction 'Hurricane' Visual

Intellect RFG introduces Hurricane Season Chicago style.

CHICAGO, IL, 60601, June 6, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Still riding the wave from his latest project "March Mayhem II," Chicago native Intellect RFG returns with a spine tingling visual for his song 'Hurricane.' The video serves as a twisted love tale. Displaying Intellect's creative and daring nature, it can be seen as one of his more expressively forward visuals to date. Creating a cinematic presence around the song to add another layer of depth to it, Intellect intertwines Twista's 'Wetter' is an ode to his Chicago roots. Displaying that Chicago is still a hotspot for Hip-Hop brilliance, Intellect RFG prepares a Summer to remember just in time for Hurricane season.

"If we are speaking on Intellect's rap techniques, they exceed! He orchestrates seamless flows, complex rhymes, and witty punchlines." – FM Hip-Hop

"The true underdog story of Intellect not only finding his place in hip hop but taking and demanding his spot in the game. I created this album to embody confidence, passion, purpose and taking your throne. When you hear this album I want you to feel as if you're the best at whatever you do in life and you're going to prove it." - Intellect

"With more than a point to prove and a needle to adjust on the creativity meter, Intellect is set to disrupt the system and he plans to do so with his first task of business seen in his upcoming visual, Ephesians 6:11. "Putting on the armor of God" as the title (and verse) references, Intellect is equipped for war with his lethal lyrical delivery." – APEX Coture
