

A friendly children's book for all ages

Marilyn Wassman shares a story of a loving mother cat and opossums

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, June 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A caring mother wants the best for their children—whether they are animals or humans. Marilyn Wassmann's "The Opossum and the Cats" shares a humbling story of a cat who then chose to stay with an opossum to give birth to her kittens. But aren't the kittens in danger with an opossum by their side?

Marilyn Wassmann is an author, artist, and librarian. She has also finished four college degrees - three in the arts and one in library science. Marilyn was able to work at the Library of Congress as an art cataloger. In her spare time, she also paints, draws, and writes poems. Marilyn shares her retirement days with her husband, Paul, and their pets: fishes, a rabbit, a cat, and three dogs.

"The Opossum and the Cats"

An Amazon review shares that "This is the story of an Opossum and a mother cat who was about to have her kittens, but she had no home. She met the Opossum in his little hole and asked if she could have her kittens there. He could not say no and allowed her to have her five kittens in his home. Their friendship grew even stronger when the Opossum saved four of the kittens."

For all loving mothers and parents, this book is a must-read as a bedtime story. Grab a copy of "The Opossum and the Cats", now available on Amazon. To know more about her other works visit her website at www.marilynwassmann.com.
