Under the visionary leadership of culinary maven Marilyn Schlossbach, Sidepiece at Whitechapel Projects offers a tantalizing menu that caters to all palates and preferences. From classic favorites to plant-based options, from glutenfree alternatives to meat lovers' delights, Sidepiece provides a symphony of flavors that captivates the senses.

Located within the breathtaking Whitechapel Projects complex, Sidepiece boasts an open-air, regenerative architectural building that seamlessly merges indoor and outdoor spaces. This remarkable venue serves as a creative haven, where music, art, private events, and the art of pizza thrive in perfect harmony. Sidepiece at Whitechapel Projects is the epitome of a captivating culinary destination.

Complementing the culinary delights, Sidepiece offers a curated collection of libations that tantalize taste buds and tell captivating tales. With a house-crafted nano brewery, local beers, spirits, and an array of organic and biodynamic wines, Sidepiece ensures that every sip is an experience in itself.

At the core of Sidepiece's ethos lies a commitment to curated fun, blending elements of art, music, film, surf, farming, and personal growth. This unique cultural fusion creates an environment where everyone finds their place at the table, fostering individuality, creativity, and a sense of community. Sidepiece embraces the art of hospitality, serving with integrity and infusing every experience with vibrant energy.

The realization of Sidepiece stems from the artistic vision of Scott Szegeski, an acclaimed artist whose dream was to create a space where creativity and celebration intertwine. Sidepiece emerged as the embodiment of his vision—a place where people of all ages can gather, share moments, and experience the joy of connection. Alongside Scott is Marilyn Schlossbach, a renowned culinary chef and community advocate, whose culinary expertise and dedication have made an indelible mark on the Jersey Shore. Together, they have created Sidepiece, a testament to their passion for art, food, and the power of communal experiences.

Inspired by the vibrant energy of London's Whitechapel District, Sidepiece at Whitechapel Projects redefines the integration of art into everyday life. This versatile venue transcends conventional boundaries, showcasing how food, drink, performances, and artistic expression intertwine to create an extraordinary sensory experience.

Founded by Preston Casertano, The Whitechapel Projects is a unique creative space located in Long Branch. Inspired by the creativity and energy of the Whitechapel District of London, the Whitechapel Projects strives to redefine how art is integrated into daily life through food, drink, performance, education, artistic expression, and horticulture. The Whitechapel Projects complex stands as a testament to environmental sustainability and mindful construction. Through adaptive reuse, the 120-year-old warehouse complex was transformed into an architectural gem that preserves the heritage of its original construction materials. The commitment to regenerative practices is reflected in the seamless blend of history and innovation found within Sidepiece.

As Sidepiece at Whitechapel Projects makes its grand debut, it invites guests to embark on a culinary odyssey where art and adventure intertwine. With its captivating flavors, creative ambiance, and vibrant cultural offerings, Sidepiece sets the stage for an unforgettable experience on the Jersey Coast.
