ebankIT and Online announce new collaboration to help financial institutions accelerate their digital transformation and deliver a seamless customer experience.

WINNIPEG, MINNEAPOLIS, UNITED STATES, June 7, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- ebankIT, a digital omnichannel banking software company is pleased to announce a new partnership with Online Business Systems (Online), a digital transformation and cybersecurity consultancy.

This strategic partnership acknowledges the digital transformation occurring in the banking industry, and the increasing demand to deliver seamless and consistent customer experiences through omnichannel solutions.

The banking industry is under tremendous pressure to transform and keep pace with evolving customer expectations. This partnership brings together the superior capabilities of ebankIT omnichannel solution with Online's 35+ years of financial services and systems integration experience to help clients accelerate their digital transformation.

"Our clients are looking for innovative banking solutions that deliver a superior experience for their customers and members, while being fully integrated into the core of their existing operations," said Tim Siemens, CTO of Online. "We believe in the vision of the ebankIT solution, having seen firsthand the value it provides to our banking clients."

"This partnership helps our customers realize the full benefit of the ebankIT platform by drawing on Online's deep expertise in all aspects of system integration," said Renato Oliveira, CEO of ebankIT. "Online's commitment to their clients and reputation for delivery excellence makes them an ideal partner for ebankIT."
