

Uhive Unveils Major Android App Update: Co-Designed with OpenAI's GPT-4, Originals, Tokenomics, Gamification, and More!

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Uhive, the disruptive social networking platform, is excited to announce a pivotal app update for Android, enriching the user experience with a suite of innovative features and a cutting-edge UI. This landmark update reveals the outcomes of a remarkable co-design with OpenAI's advanced AI model, GPT-4, marking the first of its kind in the social media landscape. Additionally, Uhive amplifies its unique tokenomics model and introduces "Uhive Originals" and a gamification system, offering users a dynamic, fun-filled, and rewarding platform. The iOS version will be following soon.

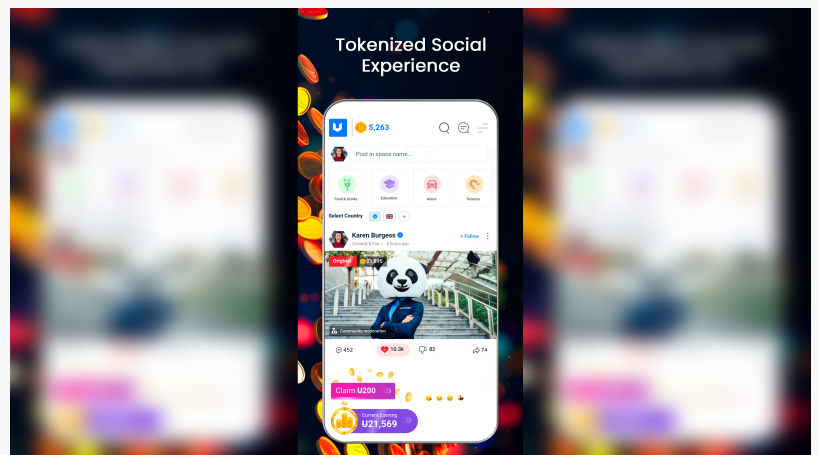

"In this major update, we're introducing a revolutionary approach to social media by integrating advanced AI capabilities, thanks to our collaboration with OpenAI's GPT-4," said Mo Shehadeh, CEO of Uhive.

"Coupled with the launch of Uhive Originals, an improved tokenomics model, and an engaging gamification system, we're transforming social media into a dynamic, rewarding, and personalised experience for all users."

The updated Uhive platform boasts a curated and exclusive content platform, "Uhive Originals". The platform's tokenomics is optimised to reward user engagement and creativity even more, offering an unparalleled earning opportunity in the social media world. The integration of a gamification system invites users into an interactive, game-like experience on the platform.
