

Ausable Funds to Participate in Veterans Florida Expo 2023

Veteran-owned mutual fund firm will meet with veterans seeking new career opportunities and executives focused on Defense, Aerospace, Banking, and Technology

TAMPA, FLORIDA, USA, June 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ausable Funds International, Inc. ("Ausable Funds"), a newly-formed mutual fund company owned and managed by military combat veterans, and focused on the global emerging markets, is pleased to announce its participation in the two-day long Veterans Florida Expo 2023 in Tampa starting on Friday, June 9, 2023.

"This is a great venue for our firm to meet with military personnel and veterans in transition to civilian life, government officials, and business executives across a wide range of sectors here in Florida," commented Edmund L. Luzine, Jr., a former Army intelligence officer with the U.S. Special Operations Command ("SOCOM") and a former emerging markets investment banker, think tank scholar, and the Founder and CEO of Ausable Funds.

At Veterans Florida Expo 2023, Ausable Funds will meet with corporate executives and career-seeking military veterans to highlight its analytical services and financial expertise in the emerging markets during a period of market volatility and global instability generated by conflict in Ukraine, Sudan and other parts of Africa, Venezuela, Afghanistan, Syria, in the Himalayas, across the South China Sea, and other Asian nations.

"The global financial markets deal with volatility daily, from banking challenges on Wall Street generated by rising interest rates and high inflation, to the potential nationalization of privately-owned corporate lithium assets in Chile, and a trade war with China. The uncertainty in these markets demands the experience and maturity that military personnel have from operating in foreign lands. Their ability to interact with foreigners, analyze risk, and thrive in volatile environments is exactly what an investment fund manager is looking for," Luzine added.

Ausable Funds is excited to participate in Veterans Florida Expo 2023 and looks forward to connecting with military veterans and industry professionals.
