PLANO, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, June 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Springfree Trampoline, a company that is dedicated to providing safe outdoor play for kids and families, is proud to announce its $2,000 donation, to The Birthday Party Project.

The Birthday Party Project is a non-profit organization that uses birthday parties to bring joy to children that are living in homeless or transitional living facilities. More than 2.5 million kids are currently living in shelters across the United States, according to their website.

To date, the Birthday Party Project, headquartered in Dallas, TX, has thrown over 2,600 parties and celebrated over 24,000 kids on their birthdays. They currently have a presence in 19 cities in the U.S.

“We are always looking for ways to give back to the community, and The Birthday Party Project aligns exactly with our mission: To bring kids, and families, joyful moments that they will remember for a lifetime,” said France Jacot, Springfree’s North America VP of Marketing.” With this donation, we are making a commitment to celebrate children in need on their special day.”

As a part of its involvement with The Birthday Party Project, Springfree Trampoline wrapped gifts and volunteered at an event hosted by The Birthday Party Project at a local shelter in the Dallas area. It’s $2,000 donation will pay for approximately one whole party event for The Birthday Party Project.
