This company has felt like my home since my first position in 1999, and I am excited to lead our talented team as we continue to deliver best-in-class virtual receptionist solutions to our clients.”

Jackie Gonzalez

During her tenure, Jackie has held various key positions, including her most recent role as Vice President of Operations. In this position, Jackie helped guide the company through many pivotal milestones, including the challenges of COVID, a migration of its technology stack from an on-premise solution to a 100% cloud-based model, and an expansion of PATLive's core answering service business resulting in more than 200% growth. She has continued to push for initiatives that foster a culture of collaboration and innovation while remaining true to PATLive's core values of providing amazing customer service at affordable prices.

As the first female CEO of PATLive, Jackie's appointment signifies a milestone in the company's history. It reflects PATLive's commitment to diversity, equality, and inclusivity, as well as its recognition of the invaluable contributions made by women in leadership positions. "I am truly honored and thrilled to be appointed as the CEO of PATLive," said Jackie Gonzalez. "This company has felt like my home since my first position here in 1999, and I am excited to lead our talented team as we continue to deliver best-in-class virtual receptionist solutions to our valued clients. I am committed to building upon our successes, fostering innovation, and driving PATLive's growth in the years ahead."

The entire PATLive team extends a warm welcome to Jackie as she steps into her new role. With her experience, passion, and leadership, the company is well-positioned for continued growth, further solidifying its position as a leader in the answering services industry.
