The Global Excellence Awards, now in their fifth year, are the flagship awards program of Acquisition International, a prominent digital business publication with a global circulation of 85,000 corporate professionals and c-level decision makers. With over 1.9 million page views on their platform in the last 12 months, Acquisition International is renowned for its comprehensive coverage of business achievements and innovation across various industries.

Unlike many other awards programs, the Global Excellence Awards operate on a merit-based system, where recipients are selected through in-depth research conducted by Acquisition International's impartial team rather than relying on external nominations. This approach ensures that only companies with substantial accomplishments and a clear commitment to innovation in their respective fields make it past the shortlisting stage and are recognized and publicized to Acquisition International's esteemed readership.
