Suntel Analytics Founder Jason David

As the Founder and Managing Director, David brings over 20 years of executive-level know-how, including his considerable experience conducting successful missions with the US Drug Enforcement Administration across the globe. Furthermore, at G4S, he built a reputable intelligence program and Global Security Operations Center. Under his leadership as VP for Allied Universal, the world's largest global integrated security company, Mr. David was responsible for the growth and profitability of the company's Intelligence Services Practice.

Jason David has worn several hats over the years, including working as an Associate Research Analyst at the global risk consultancy agency Kroll, Inc. With dual graduate degrees from Manchester Business School and Villanova University, Mr. David, author of the valuable resource "MASTERING RISK INTELLIGENCE Your Roadmap For Informed Investing In The Digital Age," brings a wide and varied perspective and pinpoint accuracy to every case.

A McKinsey report states, "Global enterprises can proactively manage the threats that escalating international and internal political tensions pose to their operations, performance, and culture." Suntel is strategically positioned to help companies accurately forecast the future through in-depth reporting and advanced analysis of thousands of data points. The same document cites evidence that the US intelligence community believes companies are headed for more contention in global competition by 2040. Suntel's team provides a detailed analysis of these potential threats making them an invaluable resource for multinational organizations.

Suntel Analytics drills deep and drives data analytics to the next level with multipoint analysis that assesses outliers and the top trends to create a complete picture.

Though based in the Sunshine State, Suntel Analytics reaches more than 120 countries through its in-house team and access to their global network of experts. The diverse group of multilingual professionals and subject matter experts across a plethora of fields brings a new dimension to data. Suntel Analytics drills deep and drives data analytics to the next level with multipoint analysis that assesses outliers and the top trends to create a complete picture. The on-the-ground support opens a new understanding of people groups, movements, and cultural nuances often lost in simple data and intelligence gathering.

In today's world, global companies are concerned about the top 5 challenges to commerce: climate action, cybersecurity, food security, energy transition, and the healthcare system. However, with its proprietary process, Suntel Analytics is ahead of the curve, which procures a positive outcome for its clients.
