

AI Tool Scribematic™ Allows Clinicians to Generate Medical Notes in Seconds

HIPAA-compliant Scribematic™ saves doctors and clinicians time and money

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, USA, June 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Scribematic™, a HIPAA-compliant and AI-enabled medical note-generating platform, today announced their official public launch. Scribematic™ uses advanced artificial intelligence to record patient visits and build comprehensive medical notes from a phone or computer recording in seconds, saving doctors and other clinicians time and money.

AI made for clinicians, by clinicians.

Discover the cutting-edge innovation of Scribematic™. Unmatched accuracy and efficiency in medical transcription and intelligent SOAP note generation.

Single click to start encounter

In seconds, completed H&P

Scribematic™
HIPAA Compliant

The company was founded in Utah by Alex Sheppert, an artificial intelligence and software expert, and Steven Pearson, a successful operating executive. Sheppert is a former medical scribe and founder of the AI development firm Comptus Technologies, and Pearson is a former founder and CEO of online reputation software company Friendemic, which was acquired in 2022 by Kenect.

Scribematic™ is easy-to-use, with no setup, download, or tutorial required. Clinicians from all specialties simply use Scribematic™ with their smartphone or computer in any language and within seconds get a comprehensive and HIPAA-compliant H&P.

“Scribematic™ generates a complete medical note as if it were an experienced human scribe, and produces a simple, thorough, and perfectly-formatted note for every patient visit — ready to insert into the EMR with just one click,” said founder Alex Sheppert.

With Scribematic™, each clinician gets 10 hours of free medical note generation, after which each user pays a monthly fee for unlimited use. No credit card or setup is required beyond an email registration.

Learn more about Scribematic™ and get 10 free hours (about 30-50 notes) at www.scribematic.ai.
