The Women's Armed Services Integration Act of 1948 was groundbreaking legislation for women in America. On June 12, 1948, President Harry Truman signed this historic piece of legislation

When You Honor A Woman Veteran, You Honor A Nation.”

Deborah Harmon-Pugh, National Campaign Chair

into law granting women to serve as regular members of our nation's military forces. On May 5, 2017, Representative Victoria Neave filed House Bill 2698 establishing Women Veterans Day.

Women Veterans ROCK and Activision Blizzard King's recognition of the honored service of America's Women Veterans was on full display during Military Appreciation

Month in May 2023. Together Women Veterans ROCK and Activision Blizzard King co-hosted the very successful “Gamification of STEM In Business” Women Veterans Leadership Conference on Armed Forces Day, May 20, 2023.

The Women Veterans Summer Leadership Retreat is a popular and long-standing leadership development annual forum. It is attended by Women Veterans, Active Duty Servicewomen, Reservist, National Guard, ROTC, Military Spouses and Military Moms too. This year's attendees were from: PA, DE, NJ, NY, MD, DC, VA, WV, OH, NC, GA, FL, NC, TX, NM, CA, and the District of Columbia.

Activision Blizzard King is a leading American Gaming Entertainment Company with an expansive Veteran Employee Network that is dedicated to creating opportunities for Women Veterans In Gaming.

"The Activision Blizzard King Veteran Employee Network remains committed to uplifting, inspiring, and celebrating the extraordinary accomplishments of Women Veterans everywhere," says, Max Levasseur, Global Chair of Activision Blizzard King Veteran Employee Network.
