

Inclusivity Project, Norcal SBDC, and East Bay SBDC Presented Capital Summit in Richmond, California, for Businesses

RICHMOND, CALIFORNIA , USA, June 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inclusivity Project, Norcal SBDC, and East Bay SBDC Presented Capital Summit in Richmond, California, for Businesses

Norcal SBC, East Bay SBDC, The Inclusivity Project, & CoBiz Richmond hosted Capital Summit on Thursday, April 20, 2023, from 10 AM to 1 PM. All serious-minded founders, startups, angels, lenders, and local leaders were invited to a conversation centered on one thing: Capital.

Inclusivity Project

The Inclusivity Project Capital Summit was a one-stop networking opportunity for the business community to talk to local lenders about financing. It was also a chance for forward-thinking businesspeople in the area to come together.

For those thinking of starting or growing their business and planning to look for a loan or other funding, these panels provided them with the insight they needed to make that opportunity a reality.”

Wesley Alexander

According to co-organizer Wesley Alexander, “For those thinking of starting or growing their business and planning to look for a loan or other funding, these panels provided them with the insight they needed to make that opportunity a reality.”

Participants were able to gain access to top-notch professionals who shared time-tested nuggets from their years of experience. The panel consisted of seasoned presenters in the financial industry and small business experts who availed themselves of pertinent questioning. Some of the presenters/panelists were:

- Wells Fargo - Micah Horgen
- US Bank - Harman Sandhu

- Travis Credit Union - Cris Hankins
- First Northern Bank - Carlos Chavez
- California Bank & Trust- Hillary Leon
- Working Solutions - Titi Ikhile
- TMC Community Capital - Daniel Fernandez
- Marble Bridge- Andrew Crone
- Socotra Capital -Hard Money Chris
- Main Street Launch - Adrian Zavala

Attendees received insider tips and guidance to their questions with help from local bankers, alternative lenders, and business financing front runners. They received foundational information on some of the most important legal considerations that small businesses should be aware of and how they can protect their business and customers.

Also, they received insight into what types of financial planning or forecasting tools are available to small businesses and how they can be used to improve cash flow and profitability. These are just examples of some of the essential topics that were discussed.

Inclusivity Project Capital Summit was a chance for novice and established entrepreneurs to formulate building blocks for their business before taking that next step to success. The information shared helped them navigate around potholes and pitfalls on their journey.
