BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- An acclaimed author Jeffrey Estrella has seized the attention of his audience with his first novel, “The Time Stone.” This science fiction is said to be jam-packed with exciting adventures, promising to take readers on a mesmerizing voyage across time and space.

In “The Time Stone,” Estrella introduces a band of misfit heroes from many walks of life who, after discovering an ancient extraterrestrial transportation device, embark on the greatest adventure ever undertaken by humanity.

Following the four main characters as they search for answers and a route back home across time is like being swept up in a vortex of compelling happenings. They have no idea that their adventure will help them solve ancient riddles and avert future apocalyptic disasters.

As the characters face the grave consequences of their deeds, Estrella deftly interweaves aspects of suspense, mystery, and introspection. These characters’ struggles push them to the brink of self-discovery, where they face their greatest fears and learn about their latent powers.

With a published poem and an honorable mention in a young playwright’s contest under his belt, Estrella’s diverse talent shines through in his first novel. He holds a J.D. from Thomas M. Cooley Law School.
