

Pastor Chris Hodges, Church of the Highlands Founder, Gives Talk at This Year's ARC Conference

At this year's ARC Conference, Pastor Chris Hodges discussed the importance of ministry

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pastor Chris Hodges, founder of The Church of the Highlands, was a keynote speaker at this year's Association of Related Churches (ARC) Conference in Birmingham, Alabama. At the event, which took place from April 25 to 26, Hodges discussed the power of ministry.

The conference recently concluded after a successful two days of talks, worship, and fellowship with like-minded ministries from around the country.

It was attended by pastors, leaders, and future church planters from various denominations, networks, and backgrounds. The ultimate goal of the conference was to help church leaders build relationships, network among each other, and provide insight into how churches can create cultures and communities that thrive.

The event featured inspiring talks from respected leaders across several denominations, as well as a powerful time of worship. Attendees also had the opportunity to connect with one another and access valuable resources that will help them in their ministries.

ARC is a cooperative of independent churches from different denominations, networks, and backgrounds who strategically resource church planters and pastors to help them reach people with the message of Jesus. We are excited to see how the ARC Conference continues to impact the church and look forward to the future events.
