

Flint scores 100 points twice in rare doubleheader victories against KC Crossover

The Flint Monarchs remain atop of the GWBA

FLINT, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Flint Monarchs of the Global Women's Basketball Association (GWBA) won both of their games this weekend, scoring over a hundred points twice against the Kansas City Crossover.

In Saturday's contest against the Crossover, the Monarchs won 103-45. Aliyah Mazyck scored a game high 21 points, Asia Boyd registered 20 points, Amersyt Alston posted 16 points and Areanna Combs and Micaela Kelly both chipped in 11 points. "I was pleased with the team defense and how we applied ball pressure during this game," said Drey Wynn, Head Coach and General Manager.
