These are just to name a few, proving that the MPA degree can open the door to numerous opportunities, making a great impact on lives. Students will gain well-rounded and up-to-date knowledge from faculty & staff experienced in online learning. Classes sizes are small, designed to foster success. Taft is an institutionally accredited school, recognized for offering programs that are flexible and accessible, with relevant curriculum that help students achieve their educational and professional goals.

The program is presented using online technology requiring no classroom or seminar attendance. With two learning modalities available (Independent Study and Directed Studies), students have the flexibility to choose the format that best fits their life, either working independently at their own pace or, with a cohort of other students, both supported by a faculty mentor.

In addition to quality and convenience, the program is affordable - tuition for the MPA program is only $295 per credit. To assist students with the payment of tuition, Taft University offers an interest-free installment plan. For the Directed Studies format, students are eligible to apply for Federal financial aid, or may also take advantage of the installment plan.

Classes start June 27th and August 29th - enrollment is still open. Prospective applicants can request more information about the MPA program by clicking HERE, or they can email Admissions@Taft.edu, or call 877.894.8238.
