Some Key Highlights From the Report

On 9 October 2020, Covetrus, which is a global leader in animal-health technology and services, announced a major investment in Veterinary Study Groups, Inc. (VSG), a leading provider of peer-to-peer learning experiences for veterinary practice leaders.

The bipolar electrosurgical instruments segment is expected to account for largest revenue share during the forecast period, owing to lower patient burn risks, greater adoption of companion animals as well as higher demand for bipolar surgical equipment.

The general surgery segment is expected to account for largest revenue share throughout the forecast period, owing to rise in prevalence of chronic diseases in animals as well as increase in the number of surgical operations done on animals.
