

FACTOR NOTCHES BAND 1 CHAMBERS RANKING

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Factor, the market leader in Integrated Law, has earned a Band 1 ranking in the Chambers Alternative Legal Service Providers Guide 2023 for contract lifecycle management globally, recognizing Factor's leading position among legal technology, Big Four and New Law companies.

Band 1 is the highest achievable ranking from Chambers and Partners, the leading independent research company in the legal industry. The 2023 edition marks the first year Chambers and Partners has named Factor to the Band 1 category, and follows recognitions from the Association of Corporate Counsel and the Financial Times.

"Achieving this top ranking from Chambers demonstrates the value that general counsel and their in-house legal departments find in Factor's Integrated Law approach," said Varun Mehta, Chief Executive Officer, Factor. "Our platform combines best-in-class talent with the elements of New Law, Traditional Law and In-house Law, which provides GCs and business leaders with better outcomes and superior contracting and client experiences."

To determine the rankings, Chambers and Partners conducts independent research and solicits feedback from clients and market leaders on such factors as technical legal ability, client service and commercial astuteness.

In elevating Factor to Band 1, Chambers and Partners reviewed a range of Factor's notable client engagements with major corporations and organizations as well as comments from a broad range of market participants.

As an example of one client's input to Chambers -- "Factor has shown they are able to deal with complex matters in a pragmatic and sensible fashion. They have skilled professionals where these challenges are very manageable."
