

DANO Network Dedicates $30M to Pay Viewers to Stream TV

The most recent rewards program of DANO Network, which compensates its viewers, will distribute a sum of $30M.

PHILIPPINES, June 14, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- DANO Network has taken the streaming world by storm by becoming the first major platform to pay viewers to watch their movies and shows. The company has dedicated $30M to its latest rewards program, which allows users to earn DANO Coins while they stream. These coins can later be redeemed for cash, making DANO Network the most lucrative streaming platform out there.

The rewards system is time-based, which means that the longer viewers stream on DANO Network, the more they can earn. This innovative approach to streaming has attracted a lot of attention from users and advertisers alike. Advertisers can now gain access to viewers with passive income due to this program, which works out for everyone.

Dano Veal, the CEO of DANO Network, believes that this program is a game-changer. He said, "Why not? Our viewers deserve to be rewarded for their loyalty, and our advertisers deserve to have access to a dedicated audience. It's a win-win situation for everyone."
