

NotaryLive Is The First Online Notary Service To Onboard New York State Notaries

NotaryLive remains at the forefront of digital transformation and becomes the first platform to onboard New York State Notaries to their online technology.

NANUET, NY, UNITED STATES, June 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NotaryLive, the leading provider of online notary services, is proud to announce its latest milestone as the first remote online platform (RON) to onboard New York State notaries. This groundbreaking achievement marks a significant advancement in the field of online notarization, expanding the reach and convenience of remote notarization services for residents and businesses across the state.

We are proud to be at the forefront of the online notarization revolution and we are confident that New York State notaries and their users will experience added benefit from our services."

Joshua Stankard - CEO & Founder of NotaryLive

The notarization process plays a crucial role in our legal system, ensuring the authenticity and integrity of important documents. However, traditional notarization methods often require in-person appointments, leading to inconvenience, time constraints, and geographical limitations, not to mention added costs. NotaryLive's technology platform eliminates these barriers by enabling secure and efficient online notarization, whenever and whenever needed.

With the addition of New York State notaries to its platform, NotaryLive continues to spearhead the digital transformation of the notary industry. By leveraging cutting-edge technology, robust security measures, and strict compliance protocols, NotaryLive offers a seamless and reliable platform for individuals and businesses to obtain legally binding notarizations from the comfort of their homes or offices.

"Bringing New York State notaries on board is a significant milestone for NotaryLive. We are proud to be at the forefront of the online notarization revolution, making notarizations more accessible, efficient, and secure," said Joshua Stankard, CEO/Founder of NotaryLive. "With our user-friendly platform and commitment to maintaining the highest standards of privacy and compliance, we are confident that New York State notaries and their users will experience added benefit from our services."

NotaryLive's platform employs state-of-the-art encryption technology, multi-factor authentication, and comprehensive identity verification processes to ensure the utmost security and privacy for all notarization transactions. Notaries are thoroughly screened and vetted, providing users with the assurance that their documents are handled by trusted and qualified professionals.

Through the utilization of NotaryLive, New York State notaries will be able to expand their reach, serve a broader client base, and streamline their notarization processes. The platform's intuitive interface, real-time collaboration tools, and secure storage of notarized documents make it an indispensable tool for notaries in the digital age.
