NAPA, CA, UNITED STATES, June 21, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- After almost 20 years in the wine industry, Jeff Owens is launching Jeff Owens Wine Consulting to follow his dream of sharing his passion with others by offering a wide range of services to help clients craft the best possible wines from “the ground up”. Owens became the first Winemaker in history to receive a 100 point score on his inaugural 2012 vintage for Odette Estate. He has continued to build upon this legacy, following up with 98-100 point scores in every vintage over the last decade.

“I am devoted to maximizing the potential of each site. This is what drives me each and every day. Over the last decade-plus, I have implemented new practices and techniques that elevated the quality across the board to produce wines that truly speak of their sense of place,” states Jeff Owens, Founder at Jeff Owens Wine Consulting.

Jeff became part of the first graduating class for Wine and Viticulture at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, which ultimately led him to pursue a career working with Bordeaux varietals in the Napa Valley. Upon graduation, Jeff began his full-time career with the PlumpJack Group. During his tenure, Jeff started in the cellar and worked his way up to become Enologist and then Assistant Winemaker for both PlumpJack and Cade Estate under the tutelage of renowned Winemaker and mentor, Tony Biagi. In 2012, Jeff was given the nod to become the founding Head Winemaker for Odette Estate, where he was the backbone of the winemaking program and team for over 11 years.

Jeff has also recently launched Angelo Owens Wines with his wife and college sweetheart, Valerie Angelo Owens. Releasing their first vintage in the Fall of 2023, the boutique wine brand will focus
