ABOUT THE PARTY

Formed from cast members of The 'All New' Mickey Mouse Club, 90's pop group The Party launched Disney's Hollywood Records and released 5 albums with music produced by Dr. Dre, Pharrell Williams, Teddy Riley, André Cymone, Stephen Bray and Jellybean Benitez. For the 30th anniversary, Hollywood Records released The Party catalog to digital platforms and hit the top 10 on iTunes.

Today, the members of The Party are parents, socially conscious entrepreneurs, and philanthropists that use their music and platforms to support nonprofits tackling a wide range of causes such as homelessness, veteran's issues, human trafficking, youth arts and education, health and well being, and diversity, equity and inclusion. The Party members support Ronald McDonald House Charities (RHMC), Operation Underground Railroad, Pearl Haven - Hoʻōla Nā Pua, onePulse Foundation, Give Kids The World Village, Combat Veterans Motorcycle Association, Native Womens Wilderness, Homes 4 Families, Cast Member Pantry, Stand Up For Kids, Crawford-Zbanek Foundation, A Sheltered Life, Target Hunger, Not Our Native Daughters, Always In The Club Foundation, and the American Association for Access, Equity and Diversity (AAAED), among many others.
