

"FBC: Family Business Circle empowers families and churches to create generational wealth through everyday spending"

The book shows families, churches, and other organizations how to create generational wealth, in the shortest time.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA., USA, June 26, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Author Terrance Amen announces the release of "FBC: Family Business Circle." This groundbreaking guide reveals innovative strategies to build generational wealth by harnessing everyday spending, empowering families to become financially independent while at the same time helping churches and organizations raise money for their mission. This creates a win-win for families and organizations they want to support. "It doesn't always have to be a zero-sum game", Mr Amen says. Everybody wins with this plan. Together, families, churches, and their favorite organizations can create a powerhouse in unity.

In "FBC: Family Business Circle," readers will discover a revolutionary approach to wealth creation that goes beyond traditional notions of saving and investing. By leveraging everyday spending and establishing a family business, individuals and families can achieve financial goals and secure a brighter future for generations to come. Church organizations and institutions can also benefit immensely from implementing the book's principles.

“

If you're not already using this plan, after reading the book, you will!”

Terrance Amen
