The Austin/King Scholarship, named in honor of two renowned dive coaches, Van Austin and Roland King, aims to recognize and support exceptional young student-athletes who display outstanding dedication, sportsmanship, and achievements in diving. This scholarship represents a significant milestone in the development of aspiring divers, allowing them to pursue their dreams while honoring the legacy of these two influential figures.

“

As a coach, my role goes beyond teaching diving techniques. I am here to instill discipline, inspire resilience, and ignite a passion for excellence.”

Scott Reich, Head Diving Coach

The Austin/King Scholarship was established by long-time RBAC and RBAC Dive Team supporter Felix Grossman and his wife Beverly. Mr. Grossman is a decorated diver with over a dozen national diving titles and a World Masters Aquatic Championship gold medal. RBAC Head Dive Coach Scott Reich and Mr. Grossman will address the importance of fostering talent and the impact this scholarship has on shaping the future of young athletes in the sport of diving.

“As a coach, my role goes beyond teaching diving techniques. I am here to instill discipline, inspire resilience, and ignite a passion for excellence. It is my honor to witness the growth of these athletes, not only as divers but as remarkable individuals” said Head Diving Coach Scott

Reich.

Two deserving divers will receive a financial award to support their training, education, and overall development as student-athletes in the diving community. This scholarship is a testament to the RBAC's commitment to nurturing the next generation of talented athletes and providing them with opportunities to thrive.

Members of the media, as well as parents, coaches, and supporters of diving, are cordially invited to attend this celebratory occasion. Please RSVP to philanthropy@rosebowlaquatics.org to confirm your attendance.
