Pierce Brehm, CEO/Founder of Magellan AI, said, "Steve's wealth of experience in global expansion and his visionary approach to partnerships make him an invaluable addition to our board. His insights will significantly contribute to our growth strategy and product innovation as we continue to simplify global expansion and hiring for our clients."

Magellan AI is committed to providing comprehensive and innovative solutions for businesses planning global expansion and hiring. The company uses cutting-edge technology and a team of experts to simplify the legal, tax, and compliance challenges that come with global business growth.

"Steve's experience and forward-thinking approach will enhance our ability to provide the best solutions for our clients," said Brehm. "His strategic leadership will shape our product and service offerings, as well as our overall approach to global expansion and hiring solutions."

With Steve Malley on board, Magellan AI is poised to redefine the HR tech landscape, providing businesses a smarter and more efficient way to manage global expansion and hiring. This move further underscores Magellan AI's commitment to bringing the best in the industry to their team, ensuring they deliver the most comprehensive and innovative solutions for their clients.

"Pierce and the team at Magellan are in the exact right place, at the exact right time. Now more than ever, there is parity across the many service providers in EoR and nobody to highlight the important variances between them. It's a pleasure to support this and I'm eager to see companies benefit from Magellan. AI", shared Malley.
