We hope this event will inspire others to support the remarkable work of Horses Healing Hearts in their transformative efforts, empowering the children to discover their inner strength.”

Marco Bernal

Horses Healing Hearts is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting children whose lives have been negatively impacted by addiction within their families. By connecting children with horses, the organization provides a nurturing environment that fosters trust and promotes resilience.

Marco Bernal, an Equestrian Ambassador for HHH, generously offered his state-of-the-art facility as the venue for this remarkable event. Nestled in the scenic beauty of Wellington, Bernal's facility provided a serene setting that promoted tranquility and encouraged the children to connect with horses in a safe and welcoming environment.

The children of HHH engaged in activities specially designed to promote emotional healing and personal growth. Their connection and fascination with the horses were further strengthened by Marco Bernal sharing the ribbons, photos, and performance awards he has earned in Dressage over the last 40 years.

"We are thrilled to welcome the HHH children to my facility for this special event," expressed Marco Bernal. "We hope to bring awareness to the healing potential of horses and inspire others to support the remarkable work of Horses Healing Hearts in their transformative efforts, empowering the children to discover their inner strength."
