have racers competing for the win during Saturday's Optima Batteries Duel in Des Moines Shootout on Saturday followed by the All American Shootout on Sunday. After the show on Friday, take part in the Twilight Cruise on historic Grand Avenue to cap of the day.

The family friendly event has something for everyone including a huge fireworks display on Saturday evening plus a Kids Zone with games and crafts including a free Model Car Take-and-Make. There will also be a pedal car display, an RC car demonstration and the miniature train museum will be open each day and, be sure to shop through 100s of local crafts in the Goodgals Gallery. If there's an expert baker in your family, bring a pie to compete in the Pie Baking contest.

The good times keep rolling with the Nitro Thunderfest exhibition on Saturday where you can see, smell and feel the horsepower of several vintage dragsters or try your hand at the tire shredding Burnout Contest on Saturday. If you're looking for a new project or parts, stroll through the Cars 4-Sale Corral, the Swap Meet or Manufacture's Midway to find the best parts for your hot rod.
