CEO*

DoD's MSEP connects military spouses with hundreds of partner employers who commit to recruiting, hiring, promoting, and retaining military spouses. Since its inception in 2011, more than 250,000 military spouses employed by MSEP employers have been reported.

Adam "AJ" Jarnagin, EXPANSIA's CEO, stated, "EXPANSIA is honored to join MSEP's elite group of employers-partners that recognize the contribution, service, and sacrifice those military spouses and their families make every day."

Jarnagin added, "Since its inception, EXPANSIA has led by creating well-paying jobs for those in this unique talent community. We did it not just because it was the right thing to do for those who faced constant challenges in maintaining employment but also because these employees are highly skilled, diverse, and excel at problem-solving, which is the DNA of any successful employee. As a digital transformation firm that hires knowledge workers, we view MSEP as a strategic partner in our continued growth."

Tynel Jarnagin, Co-Founder of EXPANSIA and a former military spouse, stated, "I personally understand the unique challenges that come with transitioning to civilian life and the challenges faced by the spouses and families of active-duty service members. That's why I'm proud to support our efforts with MSEP, helping to connect military spouses with meaningful employment opportunities and support their professional growth. Investing in our military families strengthens our workforce and our nation as a whole."
